The question then came up on the that passage of the Bill and was rejected—ayes 48, noes 49, the Constitution requiring a majority (51) of all the members elect to carry a bill containing an appropriation. The States Rights party voted against it because many of its provisions were extremely odious to them and calcilly because the Senate had passed a better bill which had already been reported to this House.

The Pederal Committee, to whom was referred the investigation of the secret importation of arms into the State from the North, asked the speaker to issue ambohnson. Senator Rousseau, of Lonieville, made Senator Rousseau, of Lonisville, made such a speech as you would expect to hear In a legislative assembly unorth of the Ohlo, instead of In Kentucky. The Senator is rather bold in his "blood and thunder" assemblys. The Senator's chivalry and gallintry, It think, are beyond question, but his principles are such as would involve Kentucky in a bloody and fearnal interneches strile. That he is a coercionist to the fullest extent of that term, I think his own declarations clearly establish. That he is clearly ut tayor of having Kentucky furnish men and means for the prosecution of the Liucoln war, no one who listened to his speech will for a moment doubt. The Scuator says Keulucky will never be carried out of the I nion "except in blood," and "that if she is dragged out it will be overhis dead corpse, or clso by a constitutional mode."

There can not longer be a doubt of the deep scated determination of the Union party of this State to give their support to the usurped Government of Lincoln. They are, as I have every reason to believe, and this time organizing all over the Sixte and the usurped Government of Lincoln. They are, as I have every reason to believe, at this time organizing all over the State, and equipping themselves for the purpose of overnwing the real, true and loyal sentiment of the people of Kentneky. Of the correctness of this assumption I have not a doubt. They are receiving arms by the thousands from the Lincoln Government, and awaring their conditions.

thousands from the Lincoln Government, and swearing their coadjutors before placing arms in their hands to resist even unto death the secession of Kentucky.

Whilst the Southern Rights party have been relying alone upon the justice of their cause, while they relied apon the success of reason and argument, right, justlee and equality, to maintain that cause, their opponents have been busily engaged, in concert with the Lincoln Government, preparing to initiate civil war among ourselves. The Senate took a recess till three o'clock, without a vote being taken on the proposition.

The bill suspending the Courts of the The bill suspending the Courts of the Commonwealth, hangs fire with the Governor and its fate is nucertain. I have positive information that the Attorney General's opinion is adverse to the Constitutionality of it, and the belief in the best informed circles is, that the Governor will vetoeit. So look out for it immediately, I so that the Mayor of the city, with a suffermediated computer from the Sanata assignment the Mayor of the city, with a self-constituted committee from the Senate, headed by Captain Roussean, and also one from the House, with Messus Jucob and Abell, have taken upon themselves the authority to invite Major Anderson to visit Frankfort during the session of the Legislature. General Butler was struck slown by a storm of from hull while healing on lature. General Butler was struck down by a storm of iron hail while leading on his troops against an enemy at Monterey. Col. Marshall won humortal honors at the head of his regiment at Buenna Vista; yet no such honors were proposed to these heroes here, as are proposed to Major An derson, who defended a fort during sunshine, but gave it up in a storm. If it is the design to carry ontthis programme, it certainly has the spirit of braviado in it, and looks like a desire to precipitate Kennd looks like a desire to precipitate Ken neky into a revolution. Major Anderso s doubtless a gentleman and a soldier, but

s doubtless a gentleman and a soldier, but considering the tact that he holds a posi-ion in a Lincoln army, designed to coerce and subjugate the South, his progress her in a trimphal march would only tend to embitter political parties, and probably re-sult in mobs and riots and insults to the Major. I hope the proposition will be with trawn. The New York Times speaks of this an "amnsing stampede:"

as an "amining stampede:"

The Pinenee, which lies opposite Alexandria, Va., with her gains bearing upon it, steamed up and swing about, changing her position and moving nearer the town unusual signs of activity on board, and at once took flight. Hundreds of families moved out of the limits of the city. The slarm was given, soldiers rushed to and fro, and the few companies collected together, and with the secusion banner, left the town. The most Intense excitement prevailed until the steamer quietly dropped anchor, closed her port-holes, and everything was quiet again. Then the people came slowly back to town, followed the next morning by the brave soldiers.

The Southern Privateers—Lord John Russell to Recognize the Rebel Letters of Marque.

[From the Boston Evening Transcript, May 18]

The foreign papers received this morning by the steamer Parana give a more complete report than that sent by telegraph of the debate in Parliament on American attires. Lord John Russell is reported to have said: "As to the letters of marque, there was a precedent in the case of three-twhen It separated from Turkey.—The right of that country to issue letters of marque was allowed, and the law officers of the crown, who had been consulted, had duclared that such a right would belong to the Southern Confederacy."

This is a very important statement, but it may only mean that Great Britain will mot, like the United States, regard the Southern privateers as pirates. Pirates being the enemies of all civilized power were made to allow her ports to be insed by southern privateers, and her courts in adjuncted comprises. Meanwhile the London lines says that there are letters of marque to be southern privateers, and her courts in adjuncted comprises. It Is now quite plain that in this quarrel, despite all that has been said and written about slavery, England sides with the Confederated States. She does so, indeed, compelled by the strongest motives of self interest. Her extron manufactures cannot il unrish, or even exist, without the usual supplies of raw material from the South. The North has just adopted a protection but tariff very uninvorable to English Interests, and, in resisting the enforcement and excension of this prohibitory tariff, the South is virtually lighting Englancis lettle. D subful questions of right are ossily and promptly settled when there is me doubt about the question of torce. The burning of Gosport dockyard has, for the moreant, placed the United States navy at England's tonerce, and if, on this occasion, England is considered as a rival and a fee, we must be nerver to the millenning than is popularly supposed. This has been amonimed to the Hone of Commons by Lord John Ressell in words which point strongly In the direction of a rupture between England and the United States. Lord John declared that he British Government would not recognize the blockade problamed of the Southern ports inless it were made of lectice, but that they lid recognize the lectice are needed. the Southern ports unless it were made of feetive, but that they did recognize the length of the letters of marque issued by frestdent Davis. Now, the Washington of these letters of marque as pirates, and maless the spirit of Yaukeeland has sank very low, they will probably show fight also on the blockade question. It is evident that bord John knew more about this matter than he chose to communicate to the flouse and the public. And it is also avident that no more favorable occasion than the properties of the year of the few maritime rivals England has cause to dread.

Alis! the apprehensions of its oppouents have been justified by subscapacit events. At last a construction of the Constitution has prevalled which makes it all that HENar denounced it for. At last a President and Cabinet acting in accordance with that construction have assumed absolute power, made the Government a despotism, and destroyed the liberties of the people of hose States which have not resumted their lelegated powers.

N . Constitutional monarch on earth exreises such power as the Administration has usurped with the sanction of the Lincoln B not a man of ability, but how

The Constitution is construed as HENRY and its opponents predicted it would be, as Mantson and its friends said it could not be; and but for the resumption of their delegated lower by a portion of the States, the lievermoent of our fathers would have no existence, but in its stead would be a despotism controlled lu its acts only by the Higher Law. The Southern Confederacy has adopted the principles of 1783 in its Constitution, Drug Store. which those who have warred on State Rights have shelfored themselves are re. moved; and on the preservation and perpetuation of that Confederacy depends the late of Republicanism in America and throughout the world. It is the last refuge, the only hope, of Constitutional liberty.

More Toryism. That Kentuckians who would enter luto accordations with LINCOLN and the perjurd miscreants he has called around him, looking to the inauguration of civil war in their own State, are canable of auxthing. hom ver atrocions, that is necessary to enable them to carry out their internal plans, we see will doubt. That anybody could forge such a false-hold, as that Tennessee meditates seizing the Visliville railroad here and make that a recent for supplicating the aid of an do Milion State to resist such an Invasion, securs so in redible that we cannot but hope that the Indianapolis Sentinel, of year terday, labored under some strange halle citation when it published, in a leading editorial, the following, to which, howeer, we invite the attention of our fellow cr. we havlie the attention of our fellow-citizens of Lonisville and of Kentucky:

lu this connection it may not be amiss to state that the Union men of Lonisville have had some bears or perhaps threats that Thene see troops intended to make a densoration upon that city for the purpose of the citizens of the Lonsville, who are in Loro of the Linion, visited out tyon Monday last, to solicit the aid of the Governor in Case those threats were put in excendion. The Governor promised to send them a regiment of troops in case of an attack from that quanter. We do not believe there is any just estate by these apprehensions of danger, but if there is, the proper source to apply for aid as the General Government, which is pleaded to assist the Union men in all the Southern Scates to the extent of its power. One thing is certain, however, whenever the Union men of Kentucky reed assistance to maintain their position of loyalty to the General Government, they will flud not only the sympathy of Indiana with them, but her parmotic citizens will furnish them all the material hid they may need, yet we are nawilling to anticipate that any such contingency er o casion for their services will ever arise.

No man in Lon sville has had any fears, citizens of Lanisville and of Kentucky:

No mau in Lou sville has had any fears, or hear i any threats, that Tennessee would male a demonstration on this city, or on any other place in Kentucky. No rian in Tennessee ever dreamed or hought of such a thing.

There has never been any danger of an avasion of this State by any Southern care or the pesple of any Southern State. There is no disposition in Tennessee o n any Southern State to " overawe the mion sentiment " in Louisville or in any ther place in Kentneky.

They recognize the right of Kentuckyto do just as her people choose; and the Confederate states would not wish Kentucky to join them, if such a thing were possible, against the wishes of a majority of her

The whole thing is preposterous, abourd, disgraceful. IT WILL RESTONE THE NATURAL COLwhere age or sickness has turned it grey, and it will render it soft and grossy.

Who may try it, will find that is does ast color the skia, but by siluulating the natural secretions at the roots, gives new life and strength to the Hair, and thus restores its color and freshness. It states need as freely as water upon the vealp, and with as much asfety—is composed of oil and stimulating spirits, and as as a sticle for the tolick, hashne equal. Read this Letter:

By its use my Hair was restored to its original color and thickness; it romoved all dandruff, arrested its failing, end gave it a rich, glossy appearance. Its effects were entirely different from any Hair Preparation t ever used before. I know of several ladies and gentlemen, my intimate friends, who sill speak of the "inimitable" as being the best and chagest Hair Preparation in our market. I can fally resommend it, and will refer any one to Hanry Repnolds, Druggist, for the ruth of my statement.
